

THE DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE ANNOUNCES FIRST LOCATIONS TO TRANSITION TO NEW NATIONAL SECURITY PERSONNEL SYSTEM

The Department of Defense intends to announce the "Spiral One" locations that will be the first to transition to the new National Security Personnel System (NSPS). Up to 300,000 employees will be brought into the system through incremental deployments, or spirals, over the next 18 months. The National Defense Authorization Act, Public Law 108-136, authorizes the DoD to establish a new human resources management system within DoD. NSPS includes systems governing basic pay, staffing, classification, performance management, labor relations, and employee appeals. These changes are designed to ensure that DoD's human resources management system aligns with the Department's critical mission requirements and protects the civil service rights of its employees.

Excerpts of draft DoD Press Release are copied below. Official release can be reviewed at DefenseLink.mil on Wednesday, December 15, 2004.

DOD ANNOUNCES FIRST LOCATIONS TO TRANSITION TO NATIONAL SECURITY PERSONNEL SYSTEM

The Department of Defense is announcing the "Spiral One" locations that are the first to transition to the National Security Personnel System (NSPS). NSPS includes systems governing basic pay, staffing, classification, performance management, labor relations, and employee appeals. Up to 300,000 employees will transition to the new human resources management system over the next 18 months. Spiral One includes general schedule (GS) and general manager (GM) employees and is targeted to begin as early as July 2005. A list of Spiral One locations, by state, is attached.

The Labor Relations portion of NSPS is also targeted to begin as early as July 2005. It will be implemented across the entire Department and is not limited to just Spiral One activities.

The National Defense Authorization Act signed into law on November 24, 2003, authorizes DoD to establish the NSPS. The NSPS law provides that the NSPS human resources system may not apply to activities with more than 300K employees until the Secretary of Defense determines and certifies that the Department has a performance management system in place that meets the statutory criteria established for the NSPS performance management system. Spiral One will provide the basis for this certification prior to the deployment of Spiral Two.

Spiral Two will include the remainder of the eligible workforce and will be initiated after a system assessment of Spiral One and after the Secretary of Defense certification of the Department's performance management system. Spiral Three will comprise the DoD labs should current legislative restrictions be eliminated.

Extensive training on effective communication as well as the functional aspects of the system will be provided to all supervisors and employees prior to deployment.

National Security Personnel System
 Summary List of Spiral 1.1 Organizations
 December 14, 2004

The following organizations have been selected as the initial group to participate in the implementation of the new human resources system for the Department of Defense, the National Security Personnel System (NSPS). Not all units within these organizations will be included in the initial implementation, and not all employees in those organizations will be covered. Generally, the first group of employees from the Spiral One organizations to be covered will be only those employees in the Continental United States, Alaska, or Hawaii; and in pay plans for the General Schedule (GS/GM) and Acquisition Demonstration Project (NH, NJ, NK).
