Comments: _It is hard to comment on a subject with very little information to go on. My biggest concern as a Supervisor is the proper training and assistance to fairly give out raises. Also I am concern about the pay bands themselves, i.e. what will be the pay ranges?, will there be any compensation to the Supervisor's pay ranges for the additional responsibilities?. I can see where the low man in the band will have great incentives to perform, but what happens to the high man in the band that is suddenly maxed out? What kind of counseling will be given to help them to adjust and what assistance will be available for the Supervisor.
