To Whom It may concern - I do not agree with this NSPS. I feel my job would not be consistent with my hours. I have bills to pay and I can't sit and wonder if I will have a job or enough hours to pay my bills. This causes extra stress in my life that I really don't need. I work hard at my job and I'm very working with my children. Why is the government doing this to their people? I'm not really scared for us. What did we do wrong? In a single person like we would be worried and that just makes it harder. I'm really not to be

Sincerely,

Bradley Carpenter
