9901, 101 Agile and Responsive workforce and Management workforce can be easily, sized, shaped, and deployed to meet changing mission requirements. I would say that more than 60% of all government employees are veterans and for good reason. (stability) to make everyone deployable takes the stability right out of being a civilian. We all did our time and we shouldn't be forced to do more in this backdoor draft.

Sincerely,
