Additional Requirements (Optional): (e.g., Special arbitrator qualifications, geographical restrictions, exclusions)

A panel will be sent based upon the request of a single party. If special requirements are listed or expedited arbitration is requested you must certify that these are jointly agreed upon by all parties. This also applies to additional panel requests. However, a submission of a panel should not be construed as anything more than compliance with a request and does not reflect on the substance or arbitrability of the issue in dispute.

I certify that the above is jointly agreed.
